Do You Know Someone Striving for an Environment that Promotes Fair and Equal Treatment For Everyone?

The Stillwater Human Rights Commission wants to know! We have an Award to recognize such a person.

The Stillwater Human Rights Commission is accepting nominations for the Stillwater Human Rights Award. Throughout the community, people work to build an environment that promotes fair and equal treatment for everyone. The intent of the Stillwater Human Rights Award is to recognize worthy individuals, organizations and businesses and support their efforts.

Eligibility:

1. The nominee must be an individual, business, or organization who resides, works, or volunteers in the City of Stillwater, and whose actions promote respect for all people.

2. The nominee’s activities proposed for recognition should be related to enjoyment and protection of human rights without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, gender, marital status, disability, sexual orientation, age, or economic status.

3. The nominee’s activities must either be voluntary or be above and beyond the usual job responsibilities of an employee, or the usual customer relations practices of a business/organization.

Visit the City Website www.ci.stillwater.mn.us or call 651-430-8800 for an application and more information, by 4:30 p.m., May 24, 2019.
